

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Stane Mozina, Professor at the Faculty of Economics,
University of Ljubljana

Born: 9.7.1927

Nationality: Slovene

Marital Status: married

Present Address: Kardeljeva 10, Ljubljana, Yugoslavia

Subject of Research and Lecturing:

Organizational Behaviour, Human Resources Development, Personnel Management, Organization Development

Details of Education:

Diploma in Technology (1956), Diploma in Industrial Psychology and Sociology (1961) and Ph.D. (1969) at University of Ljubljana; Post-Ph.D. studies - Graduate School of Business at Stanford University, U.S.A. (1972/73 and 1987); Specializations in England (1970), Sweden (1973 and 1986), Japan (1974), India (1975), France (1985), Austria (1989), and other countries.

Professional Employment

Consultant at the Institute for Productivity (1957-61), Researcher at the Institute for Social Studies (1962-69), Lecturer at the Faculty of Economics (from 1970) - all in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia. Part time as Project Leader at the International Center for Public Enterprises in Developing Countries (1975-86), Head of Training Center for Management at the Faculty of Economics (1985-89).